

COULDN'T LIFT SIX MONTHS OLD BABY

Mrs. Hawkins Was So Weak Couldn't Move in Her Bed Without Help.

HAD SUFFERED TORTURE

Well and Strong Again After Taking Tanlac and Weighs More Than She Has in Over Eighteen Years.

"I was down in bed and couldn't raise my head or move without help and now I'm able to do all my housework, even to my cooking and garden work and I weigh more than I have in eighteen years and have been taking Tanlac only about four weeks," said Mrs. Dollie Hawkins, 4906 Second avenue, South, Birmingham, Ala., recently.

"For years," continued Mrs. Hawkins, "I suffered with rheumatism and acute indigestion. The rheumatism got me down in bed and had me bound so hard and fast somebody had to move me about and the pain was terrible. I couldn't lift my six-months-old baby, and had to hire someone to wait on me and do my work. I was so nervous the least little thing dropping on the floor would startle me and my heart would almost stop beating. I couldn't eat any solid food at all and was in such run-down condition my baby fell off until it was just a little skeleton and fretted and cried all the time. No kind of medicine did me any good and I was getting worse all the time.

"If ever a medicine did wonders, Tanlac did it for me and my little baby. I felt better in just a few days after I began taking it. I have taken three bottles and I am not nervous in the least now and my sleep is fine and rests me. The awful rheumatic pains and misery is all gone. I can eat anything I want and my food not only gives me nourishment but my baby is as fat as a little pig and sits for hours at a time on a pallet and plays without a whimper. Tanlac has made a well woman of me and a fat, healthy baby out of my little sickly one, and I'm just so thankful for what Tanlac has done for us I want everybody to know about this great medicine."

Mantell's Ghost Story.
Robert Mantell tells of a barnstorming company in the West in the old days that made a try at stage magic. Considerable complaint was heard relative to the efforts of the man who was said to do the ghost in "Mantell."

One day a dramatic man on a local paper said to the leading actor, "That fellow who plays the ghost does not suggest the supernatural."

"I should say not," assented the leading man with alacrity, "but he does suggest the natural super."—Everybody's Magazine.

Then Silence.

They were dancing merrily, this young man and the young woman, and were talking of nothing at all, when suddenly the girl asked, "Have you enlisted?"

"No," answered the youth.

"Haven't you joined the Officers' Reserve corps?"

"No, not yet. I haven't thought much about that sort of thing."

"Haven't you done anything about the war?"

"No," the youth replied.

Whereupon the girl stopped dancing.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotics, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of doing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

CULTIVATE! CULTIVATE!

Produce More Food, But at the Lowest Cost.

A trip through most of the grain growing districts of Western Canada and information received from authentic sources, reveals that the spring seeding of wheat, barley and oats is finished and the grain is having a most rapid growth. Men of farming experience here say that the conditions are similar to those years when there was an abundant harvest reaped. During the past year a number of new settlers came into the country, and they will undoubtedly have a good crop this year. This added to the normal acreage, made considerably less by the lack of labor owing to the number who have gone to the front, will give a fair general yield. It is surprising the growth that this country is capable of producing.

Wheat has this spring germinated and shown three or four inches growth in five or six days, and with anything like favorable weather, harvesting should commence about the 15th of August, or a little over one hundred days from first seeding. Hundreds of farmers throughout this vast country paid for their entire holdings out of one year's crop and it would not be surprising if the same experience met a great many more this year.

The best authorities on the wheat situation give it as their opinion that for many years to come, wheat prices will be high. They base their opinion on a scientific calculation and their reasoning seems to be sound. Anyway it is quite evident that for some years to come, the producer of wheat will be amply rewarded for any effort he may make to develop this branch of agricultural industry. Money may be made on the high-priced lands of the wheat-growing districts of the United States, but it is a question if these high-priced lands would not be more profitably employed in other branches of farming than in growing the smaller grains, leaving it to lands just as productive for wheat, less expensive to operate, and with a much smaller initial price, to provide the world with this necessity of life. Here is where Western Canada, with its vast rich fertile plains, its low railway rates, its exceptionally good shipping facilities, its excellent climate, and its perfect social conditions, has a combination of advantages not possessed by any other portion of the continent. Furthermore, these lands, of unexcelled quality, are extraordinarily cheap, while for the man who does not care to undertake farming on so extensive a scale there is the free home stead which offers him all the opportunity for which he is looking.

The prospective purchaser will have no difficulty at all in making a selection of a fine piece of land, well located and convenient to transportation which may be had for from $15 to $25 an acre, and the railway companies or other holders of large tracts are always glad to sell on easy terms. Or if he desires a farm that is already under cultivation and improved, many such are to be had from farmers who already have made comfortable fortunes and are ready to retire.

It is not to the grain grower only that Western Canada offers great opportunities. If one wishes to go in for cattle raising, there are great stretches of range land both free and for lease and in many sections of the country there are the finest of grazing lands that may be purchased at very low prices.

The appeal which has been sent out both by the United States and Canadian governments, for an unstinted, unlimited production of food stuffs to prevent what might otherwise be a famine throughout this great continent—and then consequently, throughout the world—should in itself arouse all the ambition and desire in the heart and soul of the man who is not fighting at the front, to produce all he can. In addition, there is the potent fact that chances are being taken in answering the appeal. Take it from either standpoint you answer the country's call, although not fighting, and you are also insured against any loss by the high prices that are bound to exist for some time. Whether it be in the United States on its excellent grain lands or in Canada on its splendid grain lands, all should do their bit.—Advertisement.

WILSON STATES U.S. PEACE TERMS

GERMANY MUST PAY FOR WRONGS DONE, DECLARES PRESIDENT IN NOTE.

LEAGUE TO FORCE PEACE

NO TERRITORIAL CHANGES TO BE MADE EXCEPT IN INTEREST OF LIBERTY.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

America's Peace Terms in Brief.
America's peace terms, in brief, as outlined by President Wilson, are as follows:

No territory must change hands except for the purpose of securing those who inhabit it a fair chance of life and liberty.

No indemnities must be insisted on except those that constitute payment for manifest wrong done.

No readjustment of power must be made except such as will tend to secure the future peace of the world and the future welfare and happiness of its people.

In unmistakable terms President Wilson declared against Germany's proposal to restore the "status quo" before the war.

"It was the status quo ante out of which this iniquitous war issued forth," he says, "the power of the imperial German government within the empire and its widespread domination and influence outside of that empire. That status must be altered in such fashion as to prevent any such hideous thing from ever happening again."

Washington.—President Wilson, in a communication to the new government of Russia, has made plain the war aims of the United States and its position on "no annexations; no indemnities." The President's communication was delivered to the Russian government by Ambassador Francis at Petrograd. In full, it is as follows:

"In view of the approaching visit of the American delegation to Russia to express the deep friendship of the American people for the people of Russia and to discuss the best and most practical means of co-operation between the two peoples in carrying the present struggle for freedom of all peoples to a successful consummation, it seems opportune and appropriate that I should state again, in the light of this new partnership, the objects the United States has in mind in entering the war. These objects have been very much beclouded during the past few weeks by mistaken and misleading statements, and the issues at stake are too momentous, too tremendous, too significant for the whole human race, to permit any misinterpretation or misunderstandings, however slight, to remain uncorrected for a moment.

Oppressed Groups Kaiser's Dupes.

"The war has begun to go against Germany; and in their desperate desire to escape the ultimate defeat, those who are in authority in Germany are using every possible instrumentality, are making use even of the influence of groups and parties among their own subjects to whom they have never been just or fair or even tolerant, to promote a propaganda on both sides of the sea which will preserve for them their influence at home and their power abroad, to the undoing of the very men they are using.

"The position of America in this war is so clearly avowed that no man can be excused for mistaking it. She seeks no material profit or aggrandizement of any kind. She is fighting for no advantage or selfish object of her own but for the liberation of peoples everywhere from the aggressions of autocratic force.

KIDNAPED BABY FOUND IN WELL.

City Gives Vent to Fury When Bruised Body of Child Is Found.

Springfield, Mo.—Baby Lloyd Keet was found dead June 9th. The child had been drowned in a well on an abandoned farm at least four days, according to the findings from an autopsy when the band of kidnapers who took him from his home May 30th began to fear capture. June 9th scores of Springfield men in automobiles were hurrying in pursuit of the county sheriff's automobile in which seven persons suspected of complicity in the kidnapping and murder were being sped to the state prison at Jefferson City. Openly the pursuers declared their intention of taking summary vengeance upon the perpetrators, but the prisoners denied their guilt, and they were held by the sheriff.

Mr. Keet repeatedly had offered to pay any ransom sum demanded and promised at one time that he would not press the prosecution if the baby should be returned to him.

FORTY DIE IN SALVADOR QUAKE.

La Libertad, Salvador, June 11.—In the towns of Armenia and Quozaltepeque, near San Salvador, forty persons were killed and 100 were injured as the result of Thursday's earthquake, which was the most severe and most disastrous felt in San Salvador since 1893. Eighty out of every 100 houses in San Salvador were razed and the entire business section was destroyed by fire.

have begun of late to profess a like liberality and justice of purpose, but only to preserve the power they have set up in Germany and the selfish advantages which they have wrongly gained for themselves and their private projects of power, all the way from Berlin to Bagdad and beyond. Government after government has, by their influence, without open conquest of its territory, been linked together in a net of intrigue directed against nothing less than the peace and liberty of the world.

"The meshes of that intrigue must be broken, but cannot be broken unless wrongs already done are undone; and adequate measures must be taken to prevent it from ever again being reweaved or repaired. Of course the imperial German government and those whom it is using for their own undoing are seeking to obtain pledges that the war will end in the restoration or the status quo ante. It was the status quo ante out of which this iniquitous war issues forth, the power of the imperial German government within the empire and its widespread domination and influence outside of that empire. That status must be altered in such fashion as to prevent any such hideous thing from ever happening again.

"We are fighting for the liberty, the self-government and the undictated development of all peoples, and every feature of the settlement that concludes the war must be conceived and executed for that purpose. Wrongs must first be righted, and then adequate safeguards must be created to prevent their being committed again. We ought not to consider remedies merely because they have a pleasing and sonorous sound. Practical questions can be settled only by practical means. Phrases will not achieve the result. Effective readjustments will, and whatever readjustments are necessary must be made.

"But they must follow a principle and that principle is plain. No people must be forced under sovereignty under which it does not wish to live.

"No territory must change hands except for the purpose of securing those who inhabit it a fair chance of life and liberty.

"No indemnities must be insisted on except those that constitute payment for manifest wrongs done. No readjustment of power must be made except such as will tend to secure the future peace of the world and the future welfare and happiness of its peoples.

Free Peoples Must Combine.

"And then the free peoples of the world must draw together in some common covenant, some genuine and practical co-operation that will in effect combine their force to secure peace and justice in the dealings of nations with one another. The brotherhood of mankind must no longer be a fair but empty phrase; it must be given a structure of force and reality. The nations must realize their common life and effect a workable partnership to secure that life against the aggressions of autocratic and self-pleasing power.

Time to Submit or Conquer.

"For these things we can afford to pour out blood and treasure. For these are the things we have always professed to desire, and unless we pour out blood and treasure now and succeed we may never be able to unite or show conquering force again in the great cause of human liberty. The day has come to conquer or submit. If the forces of autocracy can divide us they will overcome us; if we stand together, victory is certain and the liberty which victory will secure. We can afford then to be generous, but we cannot afford then or now to be weak or omit any single guarantee of justice and security."

After the formal reception the King shook hands with Gen. Pershing and the members of his staff and expressed pleasure at welcoming the advance guard of the American army.

King George chatted for a few moments with each member of Gen. Pershing's staff. In addressing Gen. Pershing the King said:

"It has been the dream of my life to see the two great English-speaking nations more closely united. My dreams have been realized. It is with the utmost pleasure that I welcome you at the head of the American contingent to our shores."

YOUTH SAVES 25 AT BUTTE MINE

TOOL BOY AT SPECULATOR MINE SHOWS MEN WAY TO WARD OFF DEADLY GASES.

HERO BELIEVED DEAD

HOPE OF SAVING 193 MINERS HAD BEEN ABANDONED—FIFTY DEAD TAKEN OUT.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Butte, Mont., June 11.—Twenty-five men, rescued alive from the 2,400-foot level of the Speculator mine owe their lives to the heroism and resourcefulness of Manus Duggan, a 20-year-old nipper or tool boy. Young Duggan, displaying rare presence of mind, showed his older fellow workers how to bulkhead themselves from the dangerous gas and preserve their lives until their rescue. There were twenty-seven members of the party and twenty-five of them are alive, the twenty-sixth man, J. H. McAdams, dying despite efforts to resuscitate him. The fate of young Duggan is not known, but it is believed that he has perished.

The news that men had been found alive on the 2,400-foot level of the Speculator shaft spread rapidly and the gates of the mine were crowded with anxious relatives before the rescued men had been registered at the timekeeper's office.

Nya Johnson was the first man to reach the surface.

"We owe our lives to Manus Duggan," Johnson told the crowd at the timekeeper's office. "He was the one who directed the work. None of us would be here if it had not been for him."

"Duggan told us all to go into the drift," Johnson said. "After we got in the drift he got a piece of canvas. Then we took off our clothes and with both choked out the gas. He directed the work and when some men got weak he did the work of ten men. I hope they save Duggan."

The survivors rescued Sunday afternoon made a valiant fight for their lives. Directed by Manus Duggan, they built a bulkhead in a crosscut on the 2,400-foot level and stuffed it with canvas and portions of their clothing. A short distance away they made a second bulkhead and filled the space between them with dirt. This kept the gas out and they were in comparative safety for a while.

All hope that any of the unaccounted-for miners, believed to number at least 193, had escaped from the North Butte mines, in which they broke out Friday night, while 412 men were at work, was abandoned Saturday night, when the helmet men penetrated to the 2,200-foot level of the Speculator mine from adjoining mines, waded through water up to their armpits, encountered strong gas, and saw many bodies which they were unable to recover. Fifty dead had been taken out up to Saturday night.

GET EXPLOSIVE FROM FLOWER

British Scientists Discover That Blossom of Mahua Tree in India Is Rich in Acetone.

The munition output of India has in two years been increased a thousand fold, mainly through the discovery that one of India's commonest blossoms, the flower of the mahua or mhowra tree, contains acetone in quantity. This tree is widely known to all travelers in Britain's Asiatic empire, but its use as a base for explosives is at least one thing new under the sun, says the Scientific American.

When the war broke out, acetone which forms the chief ingredient of cordite, was extracted mainly from wood, maize, and starch; and the British admiralty erected a great factory for the process of acetone recovery from starch. But fortunately two English scientists in Hyderabad discovered that the mahua flowers contained acetone in larger proportions than it is found in any other vegetable substance—that this inoffensive bloom was ten times richer in the material in question than any known wood. In fact, the director general of ordnance for India reports that the mahua is by all odds the best source for acetone known.

Manufacture on a large scale is now under way and it is whispered that the abundance of munitions with which the British force in Mesopotamia appear to be blessed is to be attributed to the new discovery.
